

Border County Notes

Friday, November 24, 1905

CARROLL.

The post-office at Bowdry is to be discontinued after November 30.

W. N. Smith has been appointed postmaster at Miami Station vice Geo. Walden, resigned.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Darsey of Coloma lost a little daughter Saturday night of membranous croup.

Charles, the 16-year-old son of Mrs. Herman Dreble of Norborne died of blood-poisoning Sunday morning.

Hunters to the number of 512 have taken out license in Carroll county in compliance with the new game law.

The residence of E. W. Pierce of Carrollton was damaged to the amount of $50 Wednesday evening by some clothing catching fire in the attic.

The old Riley house at Carrollton mysteriously caught fire Wednesday morning and had the roof burned before the firemen extinguished it. The building was unoccupied at the time.

The engagement of Miss Margaret M. Brown and Dr. B. C. Davis, both of Carrollton, has been announced. They will be married early in December unless there should be a slip 'twixt cup and lip.

The burning out of a flue at the New York store in Carrollton Saturday morning caused the destruction or damage to goods to the amount of about $150. The fire was put out by the use of the house hose, and the store-building was damaged very little.

The Carrollton Democrat says that Marvin Cruzen has commenced serving notices on parents or guardians of children who are not attending school. If the notice is not enough he will commence making arrests in 10 days.

A stock company has been organized to rebuild the Weltner store-building at DeWitt. The Herald says that when this building and the new bank-building, now in course of construction, is completed there will remain only one of the eight buildings which was destroyed by the fire of November, 1904, that is not rebuilt.

Mrs. R. Lee Standley, who lived one mile south of the Wabash depot at Carrollton, ended her life by the corrosive sublimate tablet route Monday evening. Despondency over ill health is assigned as the cause of her self-destruction. Mrs. Standley was a bride of less than a month. She was from Wymore, Neb., and was married to R. Lee Standley of Carroll county at Leavenworth, Kas., October 26, 1905. After taking the poison she expressed remorse to her husband over what she had done and asked him to save her life. Physicians were hastily summoned, but they arrived too late to be of any assistance. Pending arrival of the doctors Mr. Standley administered such antidotes as he could, but to no avail.

MARRIAGES.

Robt. Hilton and Miss Myrtle Bowles, both of near Norborne.

Fred Newton of Stoke Mound township and Mrs. Mary Earls of Marceline.

Thos. F. Templeman of Leslie township and Miss Dollie Royse of Prairie township.

Gus Henke of Norborne and Miss Emma Bollman of O'Fallon, S. Charles county.

Harry Brand, foreman of the Carrollton Republican-Record, and Miss Alice Phillips of that city.

HOWARD.

Miss Sarah Walters of Fayette died Thursday of inflammation of the bowels.

The 2-months-old baby boy of Mr. and Mrs. Con Burk of Fayette died Friday.

Group five of the Missouri Banker's association will meet in Fayette Tuesday, December 12.

A passenger train struck a hog on the dump, near Glasgow, Monday. Fortunately the hog and not the train went off the track.

Henry Plains of Fayette had the misfortune to lose his best horse last week. It is supposed that some one fed the horse ground glass.

V. J. Hughes, aged 48 years, of Fayette died Monday after a lingering illness of consumption. Mr. Hughes served four years as assessor of Howard county.

James, the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Clem Delaney of Glasgow, fell and broke his right arm, near the elbow, Wednesday morning. He was trying to reach the telephone, and in order to get to it placed on a chair on top of another and tried to climb on top of them with the result that he had a hard fall.

Henry Borges, Jas. Geiger and Henry Johanning, all of Glasgow, started to drive out to the W. H. Brown sale Tuesday. As they started down a hill some part of the harness gave way and the horses became unmanageable. The gentlemen were all thrown out of the rig. Messrs. Geiger and Johanning escaped with a few bruises, but Mr. Borges suffered a sprained ankle.

Last February a dog belonging to Mrs. C. P. Ray of Cherry Grove went mad and bit several animals, among them a horse. The dog was killed, but Friday of last week the horse went into convulsions and died from hydrophobia. The animal was dragged off and its body was soaked with coal oil and burned. It was feared that dogs or other animals might eat the dead body and thus become inoculated with rabies.

MARRIAGES.

R. E. Fugate and Miss Susie Garner, both of Prairie township.

Wm. Manion of Fayette and Miss Gertrude Finnell of Clifton Hill.

LINN.

Mrs. Ellen Gall of Marceline died of cancer Wednesday morning in the 76th year of her age.

The recent revival services at the M. E. church in Marceline resulted in 17 conversions and seven accessions to the M. E. church.

John Wolfscale of Bucklin is suffering from powder burns about the face caused by the partial explosion of a gun while he was out hunting.

A toolhouse belonging to the Burlington Railway Co. at Laclede was destroyed by fire Monday morning. Spontaneous combustion.

J. W. Neal of Linneus sold a yearling colt last week to an Illinois man for 300. That colt ought to bring a good price when it gets to be a horse.

Andrew F. Thomas of near Laclede breathed his last of organic heart trouble Tuesday night. Deceased was in his 61st year and was a widower. Two out of his four children are still living.

While Mrs. O. H. Sartain of Baker township was sitting out in the yard Saturday morning, smoking and churning, fire from her pipe set her clothing ablaze and she was dangerously, perhaps fatally, burned.

A dead man was found in a coal car at Bucklin Sunday. It was learned from telegrams in response to inquiries that the stranger's name was M. A. McQuade and that his wife lives at Atlantic City, N. J.

John W. (Jack) Lawton of Brookfield, a Burlington engineer, died Saturday after a protracted illness. He was 36 years old, and leaves a wife to whom he was married about a year ago.

The remains of Mrs. Thos. H. Williams of Chicago were interred at Brookfield, her former home, Thursday morning. She was 40 years of age and her maiden name was Miss Emma E. Gullick.

The residence of Sherman Young of Brookfield was nearly ruined by fire Saturday morning. The blaze is supposed to have been caused by an incendiary or an electric light wire. None of the family was at home, but most of the household goods was saved by neighbors.

E. A. Hawkins, the Burlington railway agent at Meadville, was recently arrested for hunting without a license. When the case was called up in Justice Botts' court it was thrown out of court. Judge Botts held that there was no law requiring a man to take out license to hunt in his own county.

MARRIAGES.

Lewis D. Cox and Miss Callie Singleton, both of Brookfield.

Chas. V. Miller and Miss Dora D. Cockerham, both of Purdin.

Virgil Berg of Eversonville and Miss Ethel Long of Hechla.

Will Disney of Marceline and Miss Ida Grubbs of near Newhall.

Elias Briggs and Miss Stacey Newman, both of near St. Catherine.

Henry M. Anderson and Miss Rhoda L. Phillips, both of near Laclede.

Thos. Allen of Brookfield and Miss Josephine Pryde of near Rothville.

Milton J. Ange and Miss Bertha J. McDowell, both of near Mapleton, Kas. The bride formerly resided in the vicinity of Linneus. They were serenaded, and the merry-makers were treated to cigars and candy by the bridegroom, after which he was required to kiss the bride in their presence.

LIVINGSTON.

Wm. Moore, col., and Eddie Waterman, a white boy, were fined $1 and cost for stealing coal from the Wabash railroad at Chillicothe.

Burton Lightner, a Milwaukee section-hand, was arrested at Chillicothe Thursday on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. He was fined $5 and costs.

Mrs. Mary Hutchinson, aged 97 years, died Thursday at the home of her daughter in the Chillicothe. The deceased had been a resident of Livingston county for 60 years.

Ada Taylor, the 16-year-old daughter of R. W. Taylor of Fifty Years the Standard

DR. PRICE'S CREAM BAKING POWDER
A Cream of Tartar Powder Made From Grapes No Alum

Utica attempted suicide by drinking a large quantity of aconite and iodine Monday evening. Prompt action on the part of the physician saved the girl's life. She was despondent over a reproof administered by her father.

Bob Barnett, brother of Arthur J. Barnett of Chillicothe, who was arrested last week charged with stealing a watch, assaulted J. L. Newland, editor of the Chillicothe Constitution. Mr. Newland retorted vigorously, bringing blood from his assailant's nose. The damage to the editor was summed up in a slightly swollen eye lid.

Mrs. George Green and Mrs. Rachel Green, two prominent women of Galt, were struck by a Milwaukee passenger train and instantly killed. The horse and the women were driving was also killed. The women were on the crossing and did not see the train. The crossing is a dangerously situated place and the engineer did not have time to stop the train.

For 30 minutes Thursday night the yards of the Burlington at Chillicothe were flooded with water. An engineer on an east-bound freight misunderstood a signal and started to pull out before the big pipe of the water tank cleared the tender. The crane was pulled from its socket, the tank and the flood started. Several thousand gallons of water were lost but no damage resulted to property of the company.

MARRIAGES.

Mitchell Overton and Miss Elizabeth Watts, both of Chillicothe.

E. R. Stare of Springfield, Mo., and Miss Clara Stevenson of Chillicothe.

MACON.

Mrs. John Morris of Bevier departed this life Sunday. She leaves four children.

Miss Hannah Quailley, aged 27 years, of near Bevier died Saturday of quick consumption.

Henry M. Powell and wife of Bevier celebrated their golden wedding anniversary Wednesday, November 15.

Mrs. Thos. J. Dowell, nee Towner, a Macon bride of six months, died Tuesday in the 18th year of her age.

The Blees Military academy cadets of Macon defeated the Hannibal high school football team Saturday by a score of 39 to 0.

Geo. B., the 30-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fairbanks Larrabee of Macon, died of consumption Friday morning.

A negress, known as "Cocaine Julia," is serving a sentence of 30 days in the Macon county jail for stealing a pair of shoes from Carrie Henderson, col., of Macon.

Mrs. Elizabeth M. M. Suhr of Macon was numbered with the dead last week. She was a native of Germany and was in her 81st year at the time of her death. Four children are left to mourn her death.

Wm. H. Martin of Macon died at a hospital in St. Joseph Thursday night. Deceased was 77 years old, and had gone to the hospital for treatment. One son and one daughter survive him.

Ralph Gorns is held in the Macon jail to await trial on the charge of abducting Ora Truitt of Elmer from her husband and using her for immoral purposes. The runaway pair was captured at Milan where Mrs. Truitt paid a small fine, but Gorns did not escape on such favorable terms.

MARRIAGES.

Robert Pippin of Callao and Miss Relda Rector of Bevier.

J. M. Littrell of College Mound and Miss Alma Polson of Exello.

RANDOLPH.

Monday night a man by the name of McLaughlin was thrown from his horse at Moberly and badly injured.

John Lester, one of Moberly's old and well-known citizens, passed away Monday. Deceased had been a resident of Moberly for 45 years.

Felio Andraetti of Higbee, who was injured in No. 8 mine Nov. 4, had his leg amputated as gangrene had set in and the operation was necessary to save his life. He is now recovering rapidly.

The improvements on the Randolph hotel at Higbee have been completed. Steam heat was placed in the building and 20 rooms in the third story were added. The new floor in the office cost over $500.

Will Penn of Moberly was arrested Tuesday on a warrant sworn out by Bud Wilcox, col., who charged that Mr. Penn had whipped him. Mr. Penn said that the negro cursed him and he punished him for it. He was released on payment of the costs.

The Cairo depot caught fire Thursday afternoon and before the blaze could be extinguished a space about 20 feet square was burned in the roof. A few old records of the office were destroyed. The origin of the fire is unknown.

Saturday night Frank Wilson, col., broke into a grocery store at Huntsville, forced open the money-drawer and got what change there was in it. He also took a quantity of chewing gum. Wilson was arrested and bound over to the circuit court.

Detective L. A. Embree of the Wabash, formerly of Keytesville, has caught the two men who robbed the station and held up several traveling men at the depot in Gallatin Monday night. They were identified by their victims. The men claim to reside at Peru, Ind. The amount of money obtained was about $130.

Walter Winn, an employe of the Wabash shops at Moberly, notified the police that he had been held up by two masked men Thursday evening and robbed of his month's wages, which was about $35. The police "rounded up" a few business men and from them gained information that led them to drop the case and notify Winn that his hold-up story wouldn't work.

MARRIAGES.

Frank Sumpter and Miss Bertha Andrews both of Clark.

W. R. Crosswhite and Miss Nellie F. Welch both of Moberly.

SALINE.

Mrs. John Ruppert, aged 52, of near Ayers died of heart failure Tuesday.

The Malta Bend Telephone Co. has begun installing 'phones in Miami.

A meeting of the Saline County Teachers' association was held at Marshall last week.

The ladies of Marshall have effected the organization of a local branch of the W. C. T. U.

The Marshall Laundry Co. has purchased the Slater steam laundry from Thos. Allen.

A revival at the M. E. church, South, in Marshall closed last week with 35 conversions.

"Bud" Moore, who lives north of Marshall, claims to have raised five of the largest beets in Missouri.

Rev. Quisenberry, a noted evangelist of Indianapolis, began a revival at the Baptist church in Slater Sunday.

Ten prisoners were arraigned in the criminal court at Marshall Monday and pleaded not guilty. Their cases were set for later dates.

The girls from Warrensburg normal met the Missouri Valley college team in a game of basketball at Marshall Friday and the score was 15 to 13 in favor of M. V. C.

The proposed interurban electric road between Miami and Sedalia is just now the principal topic of conversation in Miami and along the proposed route.

Rex McDonald, the fine stallion owned by T. J. Moss & Son of Gilliam, died last week. The owners were offered $1,000 for the animal in the spring, but refused it.

Anderson Scott, a notorious negro of Slater, and a "lady friend" were driven out of town at the point of a pistol by the city marshal of Slater Tuesday night.

John Harris and Andy White, both colored, engaged in a shooting affray at Gilliam Tuesday. After the coroner's jury had rendered a verdict, Harris was buried. White escaped.

P. D. Creager, representing the Hastings Industrial Co. of Chicago, visited Slater last week for the purpose of interesting the citizens in the construction of a canning factory at that place. It is said he met with much encouragement.

H. H. Harris, who has the distinction of being the first county collector of Saline county after the war, recently returned to Marshall with his family from Colorado. Mr. Harris also assisted in laying off Marshall, the county seat, in 1839.

C. G. Patterson, formerly editor of the Marshall Democrat-News, was placed on trial in the criminal court before Judge Rich at Marshall Friday, charged with assault with intent to kill ex-Senator E. D. Martin.

Fred Maddox, a farmer living near Napton, was shot by Charley Petry with a shotgun Friday night in Marshall. Most of the shot penetrated the right arm and side. At last accounts it was said by the physician attending him that Maddox would recover. Former difficulties caused the trouble.

MARRIAGES.

Steve McCarty of Higbee and Miss Osie Davis of Higbee.

Ellis F. Boggs of Slater and Miss Cora Madison of Slater.

Robert M. Coleman and Miss Edna H. Haynie both of Miami.

Granville McGuire and Miss Nellie Killon, both of Sweet Springs.

Wm. Rollo Bruce of Ft. Worth, Tex., and Miss Georgiana Fletcher of Marshall.

John H. Bagby of Centralia, Mo., and Miss Ella Lander Ransberger of Salt Springs.

Subscribe for the Courier

Talk With Us About That Loan

We can get you the lowest rates.
We offer the most reasonable terms.
We furnish absolutely correct abstracts.
We cure sick titles and make you sure of your property.

WHY NOT TALK WITH US.

MINTER & LAMKIN,
successors to
WINTER & CRAWLEY
at the Court House
KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI.